

As a over the raod truck driver I have found that XM Radio has been the best invention since the CB Radio to keep us informed and up to date on current events and weather. The uninterrupted signal allows us to go coast to coast without ever missing the programs that help keep us awake, informed and entertained. I would hope that the FCC would not allow lobbyist for small buisnesses to keep XM Radio from its ever expanding programing.

Thank You